HOTEL OVERVIEW

Leeu Estates, an exclusive five-star boutique hotel property with 17 luxuriously appointed rooms and suites, takes central position on 100 hectares (247 acres) of vineyards, landscaped gardens and fynbos (indigenous vegetation) in the Franschhoek valley. Located between the mountainside and river; just minutes away from the village of Franschhoek, it is the ideal setting for an elegant and sophisticated private hideaway, offering superb comfort, fine dining and platinum service. At the centre of this working wine farm is the meticulously refurbished 19th-century Manor House with its six rooms and suites. There are two rooms adjacent to The Manor House, and the remaining rooms and suites are located in spacious cottages among the gardens, oak trees and vineyards.

An expression of love, the Bokkie Garden is very close to founder Anajit Singh's heart. The Afrikaans word bokkie means small buck but is also a term of endearment used by South Africans, comparable to 'beloved' or 'sweetheart'. Pivotal to the Franchesca Watson designed garden, a meditative and serene space where guests can reconnect with nature and one another; is 'Reflective Resonance' by acclaimed sculptor Angus Taylor. It is a powerful piece in bronze and Belfast granite that has become a Franschhoek landmark.

CLIMATE

Franschhoek enjoys a mild Mediterranean climate characterised by warm summers (average temperatures range from 15°C to 30°C/60°F to 85°F) and cool winters with some rainfall (average temperatures range from 8°C to 19°C/48°F to 66°F). It is the perfect destination for 'swallows', as summer falls during the northern hemisphere's winter. WHAT TO PACK Layering is the way to go as weather can turn from warm in the day to cold at night in both summer and winter. Summer: A swimsuit is essential, along with a sun hat, sunscreen, sunglasses and cool, light clothing. Light jackets or sweaters are recommended for the evenings. Winter: Daytime clothing can be lighter but evenings require woollens.

FRANSCHHOEK

The breathtakingly beautiful Franschhoek Valley is renowned as one of the world's great food and wine destinations. Settled by the French Huguenots in 1688, it has retained its Gallic charm and character. At the heart of the valley is the romantic village of Franschhoek, with its award-winning restaurants, art galleries, boutiques and many other attractions. Within easy driving distance from Franschhoek, one can enjoy the pristine beaches of the Cape, play a round of golf or experience some of the best land-based whale watching in Hermanus.

ROOMS & SUITES

LEEU SPA & GYM

Set among the vineyards, Leeu Spa is a wellness sanctuary that offers authentic massages and holistic treatments by expert therapists. These tailor-made treatments were inspired by Africa's rich heritage and traditional rituals. Premium organic products from the innovative Esse and TheraNaka™ ranges are utilised in the treatments. OPI nail polish and nail care products are used too. A range of treatments for children (aged six to 12) is also on offer.

DINING

Innovative cuisine is prepared by the Leeu Estates culinary team. Lunch and dinner menus showcase the finest locally sourced organic and ethically farmed produce in creative fusion dishes with vibrant world flavours. At Leeu Estates, leisurely meals and fine South African vintages from the cellar are served in The Dining Room and conservatory, seating up to 40 people. Lunch at Leeu Estates is served from 12h00 and dinner from 19h00. Breakfast is served from 07h00 to 11h00. Outside visitors are welcome (pre-booking preferred). A delectable afternoon tea of sweet and savoury treats that change with the seasons is available from 14h00 to 17h00 (booking essential). Complementing the Leeu Collection are Tuk Tuk, a craft beer microbrewery in collaboration with the Cape Brewing Company, and Marigold, Franschhoek's first authentic Indian restaurant.

La Petite Colombe was established at Le Quartier Français by the La Colombe team at Silvermist Wine Estate in Constantia. This restaurant, which complements La Colombe, is driven by celebrity chef Scot Kirton and head chef James Gaag. The Franschhoek kitchen is headed up by talented young La Colombe chef John Norris-Rogers. Tasting menus focus on the finest local and seasonal produce, recommended with a rare and fine wine selection. Protégé, an exciting new restaurant in partnership with the La Petite Colombe team, will be opening its doors at Le Quartier Français before the end of 2018.

At Linthwaite House, sister property in the Lake District, United Kingdom, guests can savour fine cuisine influenced by international celebrity chef Ritu Dalmia and her passion for Italian-style cooking at Stella, or enjoy an all-day dining menu at The Bar & Conservatory.

THE WINE STUDIO

In the boutique tasting venue, designed by eminent Spanish architect Tomeu Esteve, guests can sample handcrafted premium wines from Mullineux & Leeu Family Wines (one complimentary Signature Tasting per guest per stay). This award-winning collection, which has received 17 five-star ratings from Platter's South African Wine Guide, is made by winemakers Chris and Andrea Mullineux.

Open seven days a week from 10h00 to 17h00 (closed on certain public holidays).
