CLIMATE

Franschhoek enjoys a mild Mediterranean climate characterised by warm summers (average temperatures range from 15°C to 30°C/60°F to 85°F) and cool winters with some rainfall (average temperatures range from 8°C to 19°C/48°F to 66°F). It is the perfect destination for 'swallows', as summer falls during the northern hemisphere's winter. WHAT TO PACK Layering is the way to go as weather can turn from warm in the day to cold at night in both summer and winter. Summer: A swimsuit is essential, along with a sun hat, sunscreen, sunglasses and cool, light clothing. Light jackets or sweaters are recommended for the evenings. Winter: Daytime clothing can be lighter but evenings require woollens.

FRANSCHHOEK

The breathtakingly beautiful Franschhoek valley is renowned as one of the world's great food and wine destinations. Settled by the French Huguenots in 1688, it has retained its Gallic charm and character. At the heart of the valley is the romantic village of Franschhoek.

Within easy driving distance from Franschhoek, one can enjoy the pristine beaches of the Cape, play a round of golf or experience some of the best land-based whale watching in Hermanus.

DINING

La Petite Colombe was established at Le Quartier Français by the La Colombe team at Silvermist Wine Estate in Constantia. This restaurant, which complements La Colombe, is driven by celebrity chef Scot Kirton and head chef James Gaag. The Franschhoek kitchen is headed up by talented young La Colombe chef John Norris-Rogers. Tasting menus focus on the finest local and seasonal produce, recommended with a rare and fine wine selection. An exciting casual-style eatery at Le Quartier Français, Protégé, recognises talented young chefs and provides them with an opportunity to put themselves on the map. The restaurant, which complements La Petite Colombe and is also guided by Scot, offers an experience that the locals can call 'home'. The fresh, seasonal menu is based on an à la carte offering where guests are free to select as many or as few courses as they desire. Resident guests at Le Quartier Français enjoy breakfast as part of their room rate.

At sister Franschhoek property Leeu Estates, innovative cuisine is prepared by the talented culinary team. Menus showcase the finest locally sourced organic and ethically farmed produce in creative fusion dishes with vibrant world flavours. Complementing the Leeu Collection in Franschhoek are Tuk Tuk, a craft beer microbrewery in collaboration with the Cape Brewing Company, and Marigold, Franschhoek's first authentic Indian restaurant.

At Linthwaite House, sister property in the Lake District, United Kingdom guests can sample some of the finest cuisine based on locally sourced and organic produce that portrays the best of the Cumbrian region and the season. The Bar and Conservatory offer an all-day menu including pizzas and a selection of afternoon teas.
