CLIMATE

Franschhoek enjoys a mild Mediterranean climate characterised by warm summers (average temperatures range from 15°C to 30°C/60°F to 85°F) and cool winters with some rainfall (average temperatures range from 8°C to 19°C/48°F to 66°F). It is the perfect destination for "swallows", as summer falls during the Northern Hemisphere's winter. WHAT TO PACK Layering is the way to go as weather can turn from warm in the day to cold at night in both summer and winter. Summer: A swimsuit is essential, along with a sun hat, sunscreen, sunglasses and cool, light clothing. Light jackets or sweaters are recommended for the evenings. Winter: Daytime clothing can be lighter but evenings require woollens.

FRANSCHHOEK

The breathtakingly beautiful Franschhoek valley is renowned as one of the world's great food and wine destinations. Settled by the French Huguenots in 1688, it has retained its Gallic charm and character. At the heart of the valley is the romantic village of Franschhoek.

Within easy driving distance from Franschhoek, one can enjoy the pristine beaches of the Cape, play a round of golf or experience some of the best land-based whale watching in Hermanus.

DINING

La Petite Colombe was established at Le Quartier Français by the La Colombe team at Silvermist Wine Estate in Constantia. This restaurant, which complements La Colombe, is driven by celebrity chef Scot Kirton and head chef James Gaag. The Franschoek kitchen is headed up by talented young La Colombe chef John Norris-Rogers. Tasting menus focus on the finest local and seasonal produce, recommended with a rare and fine wine selection. An exciting casual-style eatery at Le Quartier Français, Protégé, recognises talented young chefs and provides them with an opportunity to put themselves on the map. The restaurant, which complements La Petite Colombe and is also guided by Scot, offers an experience that the locals can call "home". The fresh, seasonal menu is based on an à la carte offering where guests are free to select as many or as few courses as they desire. Resident guests at Le Quartier Français enjoy breakfast as part of their room rate.

At sister Franschoek property, Leeu Estates, French-inspired cuisine at Le chêne (The Oak), under the auspices of multiple award-winning chef Darren Badenhorst, features local produce. Complementing the Leeu Collection in Franschoek is TukTuk, a craft beer microbrewery in collaboration with the Cape Brewing Company, which serves bespoke brews and Mexican-inspired food.

Henrock at Linthwaite House, sister property in the Lake District, United Kingdom, is overseen by Michelin-starred chef Simon Rogan. Henrock's small sharing plates menu reflects influences, techniques and produce from around the globe. The Bar & Conservatory at Linthwaite House serves craft cocktails, an all-day dining menu and a selection of afternoon teas.
