A winter spent in the Lake District is magical. Wrap up warmly and take a walk through the fells, feeling the gentle winter sun on your face and hearing the crunch of frost underneath your feet, surrounded by snow capped mountains and glistening lakes.

Linthwaite House is set on a hilltop in 14 acres of established gardens and well-maintained private woodland grounds, overlooking the winter wonderland of Windermere. Home to the acclaimed restaurant, Henrock, as well as the Bar & Conservatory complete with crackling fire places, Linthwaite House is the perfect winter escape.
