As you embark on a stay of two nights or more, allow the warmth of our hospitality to envelop you. But that's not all; your stay offers the choice of either sailing into serenity on a tranquil Lake cruise, where the shimmering waters and the gentle whispers of the wind will transport you to a different realm, or immersing yourself in the rich tapestry of history and culture with a visit to the historic Blackwell House or the whimsical House of Beatrix Potter.

For those who travel with beloved furry companions, our open hearts extend to your four-legged friends, who are our honoured guests and will stay with you at no additional cost during this special period
