Linthwaite House, located on a hilltop with stunning views of Windermere, serves as an ideal starting point for exploring the picturesque surroundings, even during winter.

Guests can enjoy various activities within the beautiful grounds, such as playing boules or engaging in a game on the eye-catching giant outdoor chessboard. Walking trails offer a chance to admire local wildlife, plants, and sculptures, while cycling allows for exploration of the charming village of Bowness-on-Windermere, even in the colder months. In-house guests have access to a private tarn with two row boats, providing a serene winter experience on the water. The hotel itself boasts luxurious accommodation, including individually designed bedrooms and bathrooms, many of which overlook the lake, gardens, and surrounding hills, creating a cosy and enchanting atmosphere during the winter season.

Embrace the New Year's festivities at The Bar & Conservatory, where breathtaking views of Lake Windermere and the surrounding fells set the stage for an enchanting celebration. Under the guidance of Head Chef Gerald van der Walt, our all-day dining menu presents a diverse array of expertly crafted dishes, from savoury nibbles to inspired bar food options, each bursting with flavour. Sip on our signature cocktails, such as the Lakeside Sunset, meticulously prepared by our resident mixologist. Whether you're craving classic favourites or eager to try something new, each bite promises to tantalise your taste buds and leave you yearning for more.

Nestled within Linthwaite House overlooking Windermere's fells, Henrock, led by award-winning Chef Simon Rogan MBE, promises a New Year's dining experience like no other. Executive Chef Paul Burgalières and Head Chef Mark McCabe have curated a seasonal set menu and a festive tasting menu for you to enjoy, blending Rogan's farm-to-table ethos with global influences from his international ventures. With produce sourced from Rogan's own Our Farm, sustainability is paramount, with surplus ingredients transformed into innovative cocktails by Restaurant Manager Andreas Grammatikopoulos.
